A WORD FROM THE FOUNDER

"Great food isn't served at altitude by chance — it's the sum of everything we've learned on the ground."

At Bungalow, food has always been personal. For years we've cooked for Lagos the way we would for our own table — fresh, generous, and made with genuine care.

Airline and private-jet catering holds us to that same standard, at thirty thousand feet. Our guests deserve a meal that tastes as though it just left our kitchen — because it did: prepared to order, beautifully packed, and delivered on time, every time.

That commitment is the sum of everything we've learned running a restaurant — that excellence lives in the details, and that true hospitality doesn't end at the door. It follows you on board.

It would be our honour to cater your journey.

Alfonse Karam
